

NEW POETRY READINGS AT YOUR SENIOR ACTIVITY CENTER

Beginning Tuesday July 13, 2010
2:00 to 3:00pm

People from all over Lincoln County come into our office with great activity ideas. The latest idea of poetry reading was presented by Dr. Lefteris Lavrakas. He will help lead the readings which will be held on the 2nd Tuesday of each month. The Gatherings will be informal and inspirational. It is suggested that you bring with you one or two poems that you enjoy. There will also be poetry books available to read from. The group, if interested, may look into exploring “American history through the eyes of the poet”. A favorite poem of Mark Twain’s was Gray’s “Elegy in a Country Churchyard”.
